ABOUT JULIA ESPEY

Julia Espey is a renaissance woman. Her career includes ten years living in “a man’s world” as a prominent aeronautics researcher for NASA (yes, she is a real-life rocket scientist!). She’s an acclaimed classical painter whose works have been sold in some of the finest galleries in America, and she’s a leader in the network marketing industry, building an organization generating over 1.5 million dollars in sales in less than 16 months.

When Julia became a single mother, she applied her research expertise to parenting. Her quest became to discover what the very best fathers were teaching their children. In her first book of several planned in a series, Julia presents the ways 35 extraordinary men have raised and inspired their children. The book, entitled If I Were Your Daddy, This Is What You’d Learn, features a foreword by Chicken Soup for the Soul series co-creator Jack Canfield.

If I Were Your Daddy represents the most comprehensive fathers-to-parents mentor guide ever assembled. It has been endorsed by Stephen M.R. Covey, Dr. John Gray, the National Fatherhood Initiative, and numerous family therapists and educators throughout the world.
